

ZUMANITY

The Sensual Side of
CIRQUE DU SOLEIL

Dim alcoves. Intimate lighting. The wafting fragrance of undiscovered spices. The Zumanity Theatre is seductive in its own right with a cozy atmosphere custom designed to meet the unique demands of the show. The seating features options ranging from a romantic duo sofa for two to a solitary cabaret stool or traditional theatre seat.

FUN FACTS

- French fashion designer Thierry Mugler designed all of the costumes for Zumanity. The look was designed to be a larger-than-life version of the characters' individual personalities.
- All the makeup used by the cast is by MAC Cosmetics, one of Cirque du Soleil's corporate sponsors. The only exception is the custom-designed eyelashes created by Make Up For Ever.
- The water in the Water Bowl consistently stays at a temperature of 99 degrees Fahrenheit. This helps the water bowl contortionists' muscles to remain warm and flexible during the act.
- 16 designers had a hand in creating the unique Zumanity universe, including Rene Richard Cyr and Dominic Champagne, to whom we owe the staging of the show.
- The tallest pair of high heels in the show is 7 inches.
- There are more than 5,500 costume pieces worth more than $6 million at the fabulous Zumanity.
- In all, the Zumanity inventory includes 99 wigs and hair pieces.

IN JUST TEN YEARS, THE FOLLOWING ITEMS HAVE BEEN USED ON STAGE BY THE CAST OF Zumanity:

- 12,000 Roses
- 8,000 Polaroid* pictures
- 2,600 Bananas
- 320,000 Strawberries passed to the audience by the Botero Sisters
